Example of Monte-Carlo estimation of the probability of the event Df in dimension 2 :
here, N=1000; the probability estimate is equal to 0.032 because 32 trials out of 1000 are in the domain Df.
The 95% confidence interval is thus [0.021,0.043].